

My daughter who is 15 got three calls from discover card on her cell phone today soliciting a free trip and asked her if she still had her discover card or another card (ie. debit, visa...) this is something that should be stopped and looked into seriously. Soliciting random phone numbers and calling teenagers is ludicrous!!! Not to mention all the other calls you might get!